

Maggie is adjusting to life as a companion Dane just fine and is ready for a good home. Here is an update from her foster Mom Karen who is a wonderful amateur photographer.

Maggie!

Maggie and her saggy boobs, chillin' on the couch

She LOVES to lay in the sun

The great lizard hunters...

I was feeding her on raised container because when she first got here she was post spay and had trouble bending down to eat. then she started to eat like this.

so I took the container away and she decided to eat like this! (she is now eating normally) sharing the couch with Ike...

Enjoying a bully stick...

big lips.
